

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

JOHN CORRION,

Petitioner,

Case Number 09-10696

Honorable David M. Lawson

v.

MARY BERGHUIS,

Respondent.

---

ORDER DENYING CERTIFICATE OF APPEALABILITY

The petitioner, John Corrion, filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 that the Court denied on July 6, 2011. The Court will now consider whether to issue a certificate of appealability.

A certificate of appealability may issue “only if the applicant has made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). Courts must either issue a certificate of appealability indicating which issues satisfy the required showing or provide reasons why such a certificate should not issue. 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(3); Fed. R. App. P. 22(b); In re Certificates of Appealability, 106 F.3d 1306, 1307 (6th Cir. 1997). To receive a certificate of appealability, “a petitioner must show that reasonable jurists could debate whether (or, for that matter, agree that) the petition should have been resolved in a different manner or that the issues presented were adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further.” Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 336 (2003) (internal quotes and citations omitted).

The petitioner’s claims were denied because they were either meritless or procedurally defaulted. The Court now finds that reasonable jurists could not debate that this Court correctly dismissed the petitioner's claim. Therefore, the Court will deny the petitioner a certificate of appealability.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the certificate of appealability is DENIED.
